

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION: FOOD FOR ALL

Use this Eucharistic Adoration* to pray for an end to hunger around the world and an increased solidarity, in our hearts and communities, with those who hunger. This adoration, in conjunction with Pope Francis' Food for All campaign with Caritas Internationalis, asks us to find, in the words of Pope Francis, "a way ... to enable everyone to benefit from the fruits of the earth, and not simply to close the gap between the affluent and those who must be satisfied with the crumbs falling from the table."

Procession

After all have assembled, a priest or deacon, wearing cope and humeral veil, brings the Blessed Sacrament to the Altar in a monstrance (a song may be sung). He may be accompanied by altar servers with candles.

The Blessed Sacrament is placed on the altar. The presiding celebrant then kneels before the altar and incenses the Blessed Sacrament. The opening song is concluded and a period of silent prayer follows.

Opening Prayer

The presiding celebrant then goes to the chair, where he prays the following Collect:

Almighty Father, whose only Son, Jesus, makes you known by embodying for us Love and Truth, help us to recognize the face of Jesus in the poor, and to live out our vocation to bring love and justice to your people.

Through the Holy Spirit, you inspire us to transform our world, and empower us to seek the common good for all persons; Fill us with a spirit of solidarity to make us one human family. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever.

Amen

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Isaiah 58:5–12

A reading from the Book of the Prophet Isaiah

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 72:1–2, 7–8, 12–13, 17

R. (cf. 7) Justice shall flourish in his time, and fullness of peace forever.

O God, with your judgment endow the king, and with your justice, the king's son; he shall govern your people with justice and your afflicted ones with judgment.

R. Justice shall flourish in his time, and fullness of peace forever.

Justice shall flower in his days, and profound peace, till the moon be no more.

May he rule from sea to sea, and from the river to the ends of the earth.

R. Justice shall flourish in his time, and fullness of peace forever.

For he shall rescue the poor when he cries out, and the afflicted when he has no one to help him.

He shall have pity for
the lowly and the poor;
the lives of the poor he shall save.

- R. Justice shall flourish in his time, and
fullness of peace forever.
May his name be blessed forever;
as long as the sun his name shall remain.
In him shall all the tribes
of the earth be blessed;
all the nations shall proclaim his happiness.
- R. Justice shall flourish in his time, and
fullness of peace forever.

Gospel

Mark 6:34–44

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

Presiding celebrant: The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Homily

At the conclusion of the last reading, a priest or a deacon preaches the homily, followed by a period of silent prayer.

Intercessions

Standing at the chair, the presiding minister invites the people to pray:

Presiding celebrant: God is the Father of all peoples and wills all to be gathered into one family free from division and strife. Trusting in his providence, we place our petition for peace
before him as we pray:

Reader: For all people of good will, that they may never lose hope in creating a more just world, we pray to the Lord ...

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: For our own faith community, that we strive to imitate Jesus' love for the world through feeding the hungry, giving drink to the thirsty, and supporting those in our own community and around the world who are most in need, we pray to the Lord ...

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: For all throughout the world who struggle with physical hunger and spiritual hunger, may they find nourishment for their bodies and souls, we pray to the Lord ...

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: For the Church, that the Blood of Christ poured out for the world may be the cleansing grace which unites all God's people in his Church and for the Kingdom, we pray to the Lord ...

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Reader: Let us enter into a period of silent prayer for those intentions we hold in our hearts:

A period of silent prayer follows ...

We pray to the Lord ...

All: Lord, hear our prayer.

Presiding celebrant: Trusting, O Lord, in your loving mercy and gracious bounty, we offer these prayers with confidence in the name of Jesus, your Son, who lives and reigns forever and ever.

All: Amen

Benediction

The presiding celebrant goes to the altar, genuflects and then kneels. As he kneels, "Tantum Ergo" or another suitable Eucharistic song is sung and he incenses the Blessed Sacrament. After the hymn is finished, he rises and continues:

Presiding celebrant: Let us pray.

After a brief period of silence, the presiding celebrant continues:

Lord our God, you have given us

the true bread from heaven.

In the strength of this food
may we live always by your life
and rise in glory on the last day.

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen

After the prayer, the presiding celebrant puts on the humeral veil, genuflects and takes the monstrance. He makes the sign of the cross with the monstrance over those gathered, in silence.

Reposition

After the blessing, the Blessed Sacrament is removed from the monstrance and brought to the place of reservation. Meanwhile, the presiding celebrant may lead those assembled in the Divine Praises. Each acclamation is repeated by all together.

Blessed be God.

Blessed be His Holy Name.

Blessed be Jesus Christ,
true God and true man.

Blessed be the name of Jesus.

Blessed be His Most Sacred Heart.

Blessed be His Most Precious Blood.

Blessed be Jesus in the Most
