CALL TO COMMUNITY, FAMILY AND PARTICIPATION

GRADES 7-8

45 MINUTES

OBJECTIVE

Through the stories of Trinh, Yvone, and Maria Ana, students will explore a Catholic social teaching principle—Call to Community, Family and Participation—and consider what community means.

MATERIALS

- Facts to Consider
- Week 2 story or video (available at crsricebowl.org/stories)
- Week 2 Activity Sheet: Grades 7-8 (in this guide and also available at crsricebowl.org/schools)

DISCUSSION (15 MINUTES)

- Ask a few students to read the Facts to Consider aloud. Which do they find most interesting? Why?
- 2. Read or watch the Week 2 story.
- 3. Reflect:
 - What stood out to you in the story?
 - How does it illustrate Call to Community, Family and Participation?
 - How are the homes of the three girls different than your home?

ACTIVITY (25 MINUTES)

- Explain Call to Community, Family and Participation. Discuss how humans are social by nature. We need each other. Like the early disciples, we are called to come together and grow as a community—in our classroom, church and family.
- 2. Have students complete the Week 2 Activity Sheet: Grades 7–8.
- If time permits, have them share their responses to the last question in small groups.

CLOSING PRAYER (5 MINUTES)

Loving God,

You have blessed us abundantly with family, friends, shelter and food. And yet, we know that there are those in our community and world who go without these things. Give us the grace to share our blessings with others. May our service be a sign of our love and gratitude for you.

Amen

AT HOME

- 1. Reflect on what home means to you and write about it in a short paragraph.
- 2. Share with your family your reflection on home and what you learned about the three girls.

IF YOU ONLY HAVE 10 1. Read or watch the Week 2 story.

2. Lead Discussion step 3.
