

WEEK 3: THE PHILIPPINES

DIGNITY OF WORK AND RIGHTS OF WORKERS

Jesus spent years working as a carpenter. Work is important to help people fulfill their potential. And everyone must receive a fair wage to provide for themselves and their families.

STORY OF HOPE

Raul and Rhodora Enecillo live on their farm in Northern Samar, Philippines, with their two granddaughters. Their dream is that their grandchildren will graduate from college.

For years, Raul and Rhodora worked hard as coconut farmers, but it was tough to make a living. On top of that, periods of heavy rain made farming difficult.

Then Raul and Rhodora participated in a Catholic Relief Services program where they received training and assistance to build their own fishpond. The fish grew bigger and soon they were able to sell them at the market. The pond also provided food for the family so they could enjoy nutritious meals together.

Now, Raul and Rhodora have added two more fishponds, along with pigs and chickens. With the extra income, their granddaughters can study hard and finish school.

“I have many dreams for my family and my grandchildren,” Raul says. “I hope I can give them something good.”

FACTS TO CONSIDER:

- With its location near the equator and on the Pacific Ring of Fire, the Philippines is one of the world’s most disaster-prone countries, with an average of 20 typhoons per year, as well as earthquakes, landslides and volcanic eruptions.
- The Philippines is composed of more than 7,000 islands and is slightly larger than Arizona. It is inhabited by more than 200 species of mammals, including monkeys, lemurs, pangolins and mongooses. Hundreds of species of birds also live in the Philippines.
- CRS has provided assistance in the Philippines since 1945 through agriculture support, emergency response and recovery, shelter programming, disaster risk reduction and resilience, and peacebuilding efforts.

DIGNITY OF WORK AND RIGHTS OF WORKERS

45 MINUTES

OBJECTIVE

Through the story of Raul and Rhodora of the Philippines, students will explore the Catholic social teaching principle of the Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers.

MATERIALS

- Week 3 story and video—available at crsricebowl.org/stories.
- Week 3 Activity Sheet: Grades 1-3, including page with pond image.
- Scissors.
- Glue.
- Crayons, colored pencils or markers.

DISCUSSION (15 MINUTES)

1. Read the story from week 3. Use the video to supplement the story.
2. Reflect:
  - Why did Raul and Rhodora struggle as coconut farmers?
  - How did CRS programming help?
  - What did Raul and Rhodora do with their new profit?

ACTIVITY (25 MINUTES)

1. Explain the Catholic social teaching principle of the Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers. Discuss how Jesus spent years working as a carpenter. Work allows people to use their God-given talents and interests for the common good. And everyone must be paid fairly to support themselves and their families.
2. Have students complete the Week 3 Activity Sheet: Grades 1-3.
3. If time permits, have students share their favorite part of the story with a peer.

CLOSING PRAYER (5 MINUTES)

Compassionate God,

We pray that each person discovers their passion and true calling. May all people have the opportunity to pursue their dreams, have safe work and be paid fairly.

Amen

AT HOME

1. Share your activity sheet with your family.
2. As a family, read and discuss the daily reflection in your CRS Rice Bowl Lenten Calendar.

IF YOU ONLY HAVE

1. Read the week 3 story. Use the video to supplement the story.
2. Lead Discussion step 2.
